GREETINGS FROM MANFRED, NORTH DAKOTA!

Manfred Days – July 15, 2001

Greetings to everyone in this third issue of the quarterly new Manfred News! This issue is devoted to sharing about the very successful Manfred Days celebration held July 14 and 15. Whether or not you were able to attend, you can enjoy the excitement of this nostalgic event through the words and pictures found in this newsletter. In addition, a marvelous video has been produced about Manfred Days, which is now available through MHP, Inc. You won't want to miss having a copy of this two-hour video that contains wonderful footage of Manfred Days, as well as, a brief introductory review of the history of Manfred. See the order form on Page 9.

Time is precious. The history and preservation projects are moving quickly forward because of your generous and enthusiastic help by contributing historical information and items, financial contributions, as well as, volunteering to help the projects advance in any way you can. The time for action is now. With your help the goals for 2002 can be realized, which include completing the history gathering and also completing the renovation of the future Manfred History Gallery. Thank you to everyone who is eagerly stepping forward to help with the Manfred efforts.

A regular feature of this newsletter is the late breaking news about Manfred and MHP, Inc. found on page 2. Also, it's fun to say that the 'MHP, Inc. Shop' is open for business, and on page 9 you can find a shopping list order form of some neat items about Manfred. Just as had been enjoyed in the April 2001 Issue, historical articles and memories submitted by you will be featured in future newsletters. Several people have already submitted items, which will appear in the December newsletter. Everyone is heartedly invited to submit articles, tidbit information, and other items pertaining to Manfred and its history. In a united effort, we are bringing the wonderful history of Manfred together!

The New MANFRED NEWS

The photos in this issue are provided by: Rose Anderson, Erin Calloway, Richard Melchert, Audrey Solheim, and Lorna Tyson. Also, Gwyn Herman and Laverne Johnson handled some of the camera work. Thanks so much to everyone! These photos plus others also appear on the Manfred Days video.

Wow, we have come a long ways since the founding of MHP, Inc. a little over a year ago. We have compiled a Manfred listing of over 400 names and addresses, and more names continue to be added. If you know of someone who would like to receive this newsletter, please let us know.

Vang Lutheran Church was placed on the National Register of Historic Places on June 21, 2001 by the Keeper of the National Register at Washington, D.C. in recognition of Vang Lutheran's contribution to the tradition of ethnic heritage in America. The award will be presented at a ceremony in Bismarck on November 17, 2001. Those wishing to attend are asked to meet at 8 p.m. in the lobby of the Holiday Inn in Bismarck at: 605 E Broadway Ave. Call to car pool.

MHP, Inc. has some neat Manfred items now available for sale. The order form is provided on page 9. Peek & see.

The statistics for Manfred Days include around 120 individuals and organizations helping in some way to make Manfred Days such a success, nearly 140 attended the Celebrate Manfred banquet and program, about 300 people attended the Trinity parish service in Manfred, nearly 270 attended the old-fashioned picnic dinner under the big tent, and it is estimated that around 400 attended the parade on Sunday afternoon. My goodness!

I know you will agree that the village of Manfred is a nice place to visit. Many people are finding that the Manfred website is also a nice place to visit. According to the statistics, over 1900 visits have been made there since its origin. The weekly total is currently close to 40 visits. www.manfrednd.org is in the process of evolving as the history project progresses. Our theme song (smile): We welcome you to help us with the research and collecting of historical information for Manfred.

Vang Lutheran Church's Harvest Fest is planned for October 21, 2001 beginning with the morning worship service, followed by a potluck dinner. A white elephant sale will be featured throughout the day and in the afternoon, excerpts of the Manfred Days Video will be shown. Sounds like a fun day!

On January 13, 2001, the dearly remembered Festival Hall on the Wells County Fair Grounds was destroyed by fire. The field stone walls remain standing and are structurally sound. The State Historical Society of North Dakota is urging that this treasure be restored, and as a result a fund drive is underway. In order that bid letting for construction may proceed this fall, restoration funds must be submitted by October 1, 2001. If you would like to help financially in this effort, you can send a tax-deductible contribution to Festival Hall Restoration P.O. Box 467, Fessenden ND 58438-0467. Recall fond time in Festival Hall?

Local MHP, Inc. friends meet regularly at Manfred to keep abreast of the progress of the history and preservation projects and to find ways to help with the work of making a positive difference in the village of Manfred. Everyone is cordially welcome to come to these informal gatherings. Meeting times are announced in the Harvey Herald Press - Calendar of Events.

Production of a complete 'History of Manfred' video is planned for later next year, as soon as most of the history gathering has been completed. That video will serve as a nice keepsake for everyone, and also as a historical record to carry down through the ages. It will be wonderful! If you know of information or people we should be in touch with regarding Manfred history, please let MHP, Inc. know right away.

There are a number of people who care for the grounds in Manfred, both those who live there and also others who volunteer their time and equipment to help. Many thanks to everyone who mows, cuts hay, or has helped with clean-up work at Manfred. They include Perry Anderson and family, Pete and Rose Anderson, Rod Anderson, Verna Bowers, Harry Detling, Roy Fandrich, Sheldon Feickert, Edgar Flick, Neil Hager of the Manfred Branch of the Fessenden Coop Elevator, Bridget Harkness, Bruce Melby and family, Richard and Wanda Melchert, Pam Norstedt, Herbert Ongstad, Joyce Ravnaas, and Chuck Roller. Kent and Mindy Opdahl and Skeet Ehni cut hay at Manfred. If you are interested to help with yard care or restoration work, you are most welcome!

Thank you to the many people who have already contributed photos and history to the Manfred history project. Each contribution helps add a little more to the story about Manfred, and what a great story it is!

Many have been interested to help with the cost of the newsletter. At the last MHP, Inc. meeting, it was decided to set an annual contribution of $10.00 to help defray the newsletter costs. You can send this contribution together with your order on page 9.

In the early years there were several churches in the Manfred area. Today there remain two active churches: Vang Lutheran Church services are held on Sundays either at 8:00 a.m. or 9:30 a.m. on a rotating schedule. The Manfred Seventh Day Adventist Church services are held on Saturdays at 11:00 a.m. except on the 4th Sunday of each month when it is held at 10:00 a.m.

How nice to be able to say that the Melby-Rogness Home is well protected now with a new roof and the exterior painting is nearly completed!

Review of Manfred Days...

Manfred Days took place Saturday, July 14 and Sunday, July 15 in order to celebrate the history of Manfred, and also to give honor to this community and the people who stem from it. The goals of bringing people together and to help promote the history and preservation projects now underway at Manfred, were both very successfully accomplished. People came from far and near to honor Manfred. Activities took place in or near Manfred, and also in Harvey.

With neatly trimmed grounds bedecked with potted flowers, the entire village of Manfred was beautifully dressed for this occasion. In the center of the village stood a 100' big top tent containing tables and chairs. Smaller canopy tents for booths stood nearby. The village was filled with parked cars and people all about. Balloons, display boards, and the 'I Love Manfred' pins cheerfully emphasized the red and white color theme. The 'I Love Manfred' emblem was also used as the background image on the nametags.

The history of Manfred was featured throughout Manfred Days, beginning Saturday morning with a tour of Manfred. Personal remembrances shared among the group was a highlight of this activity. Various history displays around town helped people sense the rich heritage of this small village. Featured inside the brick bank/post office building was a wonderful display assembled by Edgar and Jeanne Flick containing old photos, and also items from the C.C. Melby store and the post office. Display boards placed at 22 sites where early businesses had been located, contained photos, history, and ads of the early stores. Pete Anderson had an interesting display of early record books on hand for people to search through.

A talk featuring the history and architecture of Vang Lutheran Church was presented Saturday afternoon by Wanda Melchert in honor of it being listed on the National Register of Historic Places on June 21, 2001. This was followed by a tribute to the primary owners of the 1903 Melby/Rogness home. We were honored to have present, Myrtle Rogness and Richard Rogness. Also recognized were the Anderson family for their contribution of four porch columns, and Ervin and Evelina Boese for their contribution of the leaded glass window to this home.

The computer center was located in the church parlor where Jarrod Schroeder and Audrey Solheim were on hand to share about Manfred's web site and help people with scanning family photographs for Manfred's history project.

A banquet Saturday evening provided a time to recognize the people who came from Manfred. It was a great honor to have six former Manfred school teachers present: Laverne Johnson, Marlys Boese Piatz, Betty Ellingson Reichenberger, Myrtle Mortinson Rogness, Myrtle Melby Sailer, and Margaret Anderson Thorson. There were also many former Manfred school students in attendance. Various family groups were also introduced. A 14-minute brief review of Manfred history produced especially for Manfred Days was shown.

The church services Saturday and Sunday mornings provided a wonderful opportunity for everyone to join together in worship. The Manfred Seventh Day Adventist Church was filled to capacity for a joyous Sabbath service on Saturday. Guest speaker, Pastor Darrel Lindensmith, had been secured especially for the Manfred Days celebration. Vang Lutheran Church hosted an inspiring parish service on Sunday morning, led by Pastoral Assistant Fred Schmidt. Especially touching for the 300 people in attendance under the big top tent, was the view of Vang Lutheran across the road and to listen to its bell ring in celebration. Many hymns were sung at each of these services. Special music on Saturday were a ladies quartet and a ladies trio, and on Sunday a mass choir led by Joe Bolyard and Ted Thorson, each directing hymns sung in four-part harmony.

Music filled the air throughout Manfred Days, in honor of this deep tradition that was so much a part of the early settler's life. Beginning on Saturday afternoon, the Manfred Trio presented a beautiful program of Gospel Music. Following this, the feet began tapping to the beat of old-time music led by David Roerick on accordion and Emanuel Volk on guitar. Again after the banquet, they played for an old-fashioned dance.

Sunday afternoon, the music was continuous beginning with the Harvey City Band giving a great concert. It was such an honor to have this group present for Manfred Days because in this way two of its members, Ervin Boese & Orval Roble, had the opportunity to perform on the same streets where their forefathers had played in the Manfred Cornet Band during the early 1900's... Orval's father Olaf, and Ervin's father Lewis and his two brothers Leo and Hugo. This concert was followed by a delightful program presented by the Sverdrup Sons of Norway Chorus and Folk Dancers of Bismarck. Their folk clothing and music captivated the audience with the sights and sounds reminiscent of the Norwegian settlers. Then, the merry old-time orchestra fittingly rounded out this old-fashioned celebration. The fabulous sound system expertly handled and provided by Perry Anderson proved a tremendous blessing for Manfred Days.

Sunday afternoon was also filled with other fun activities beginning with the Manfred Days Parade featuring 29 entries representing different aspects of history including Percheron horses, vintage automobiles, early businesses, family entries, as well as, entries from the surrounding communities who all came to help honor this little place. Very meaningful was the playing of the national anthem by the Harvey City Band at the start of the parade. Everyone so proudly sang with eyes focused on the USA flag color guard right in Manfred!

A popular spot was the basement parlor of Vang Lutheran Church where a silent auction and an old-fashioned ice cream social were taking place. Besides choices of hard and soft-serve ice cream, and root beer floats, there were kitchens, pies, and other tasty desserts. There were also a number of booths in and around the big top tent including old-fashioned candy, early crafts, rommegrot, fancy cookies, and a burger stand. The Harvey Assembly of God Church provided a wonderful series of old-fashioned games for the children. Throughout the celebration, several meals were enjoyed including the nice breakfast buffets on Saturday and Sunday morning available at the Town and Country Restaurant, the wonderful fellowship dinner hosted by the Manfred Seventh Day Adventist Church, and the Saturday banquet and Sunday picnic dinner catered by Carol Reimche.

What a lovely celebration it was for everyone in remembering and sharing together. Manfred was greatly blessed with this wonderful and happy gathering.
